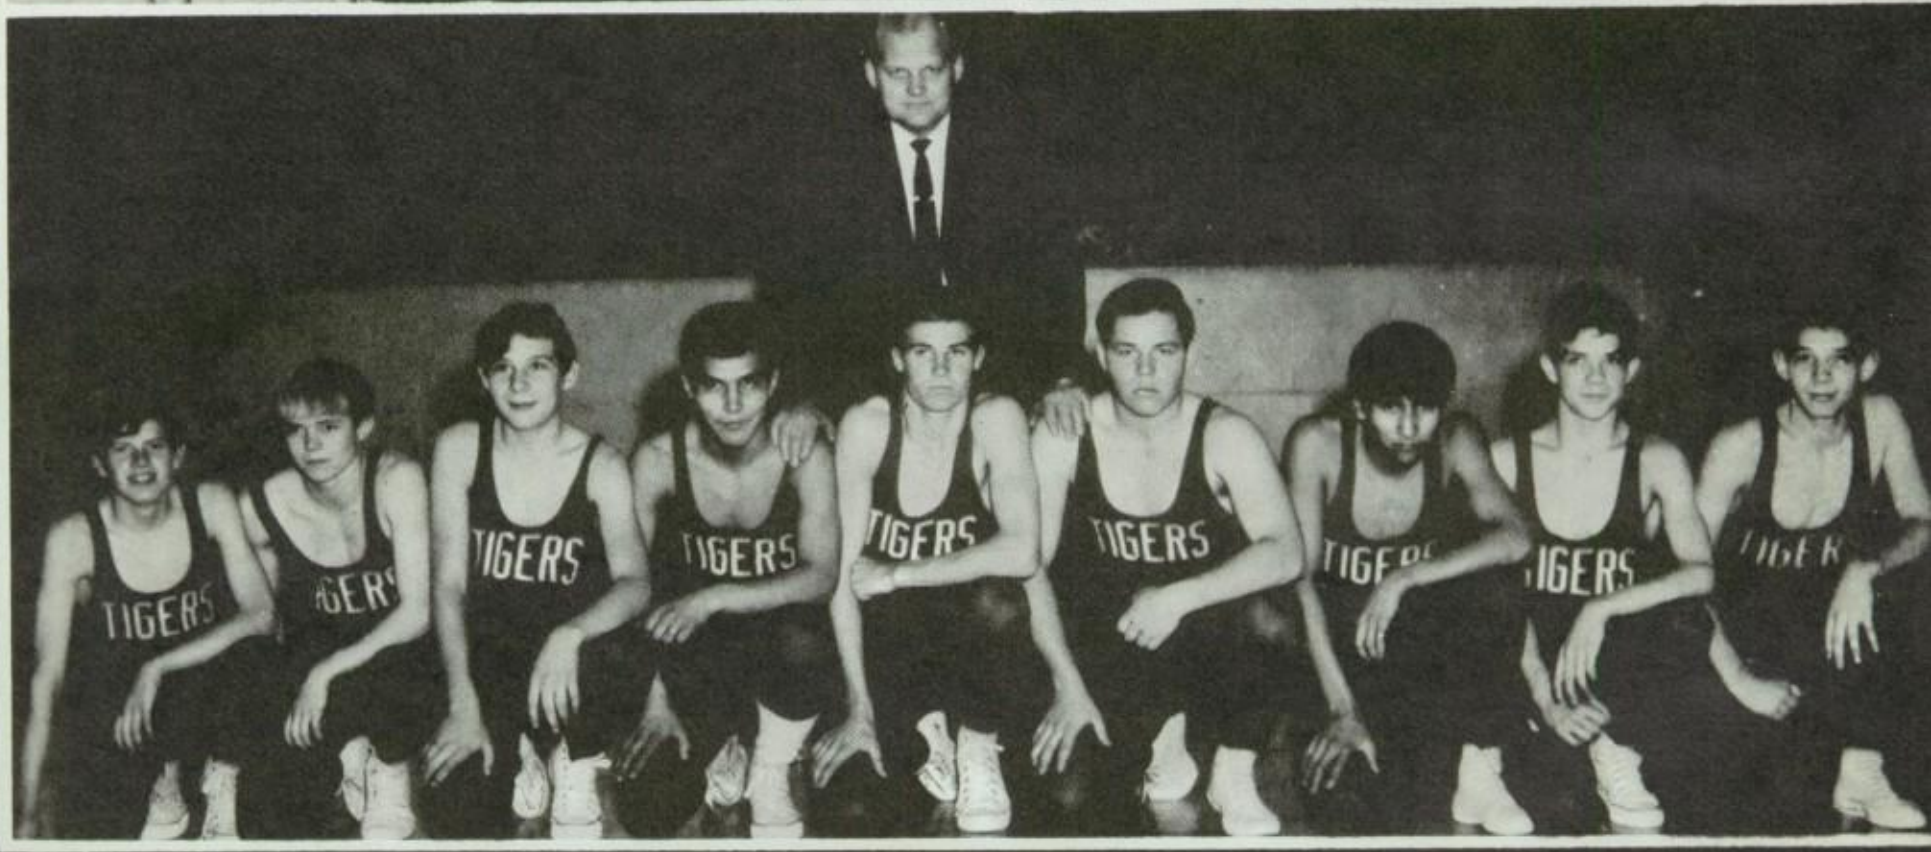
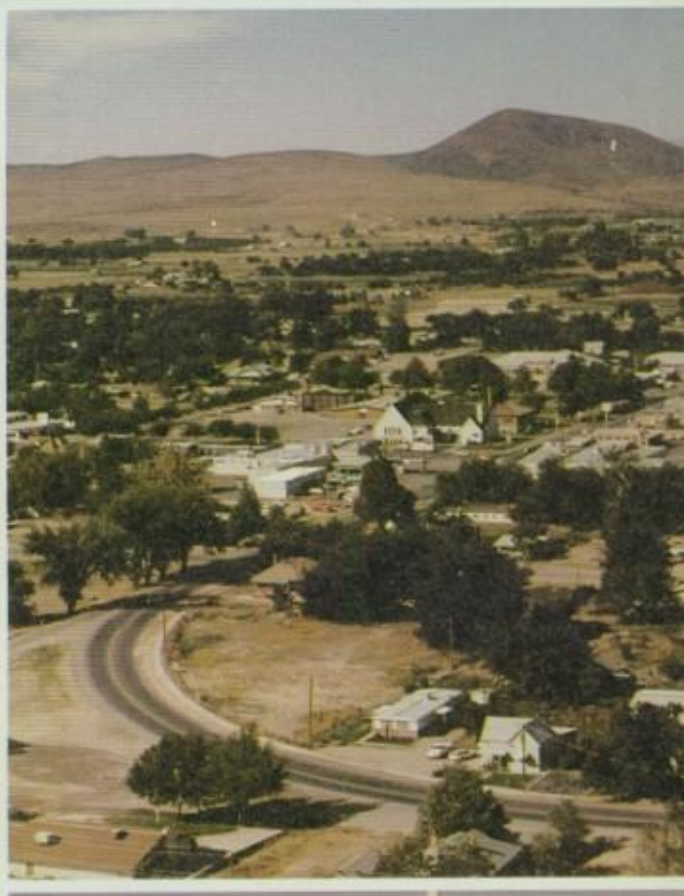
OPENING

BEGINNING

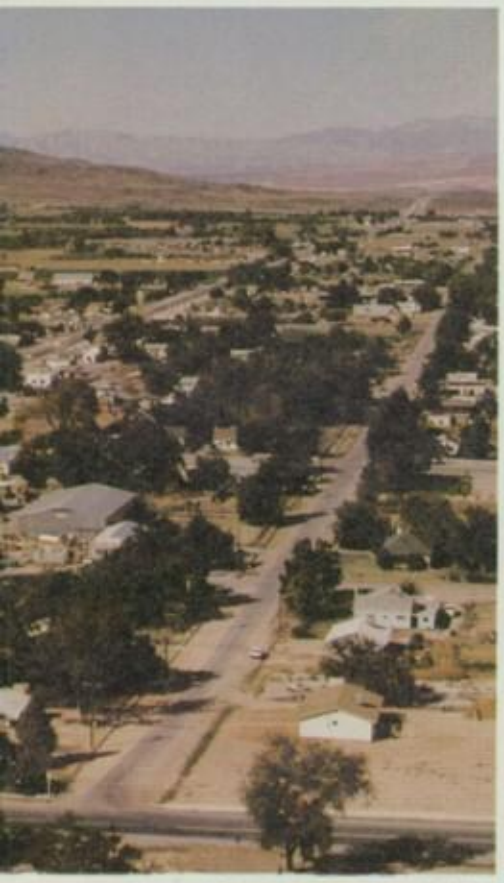


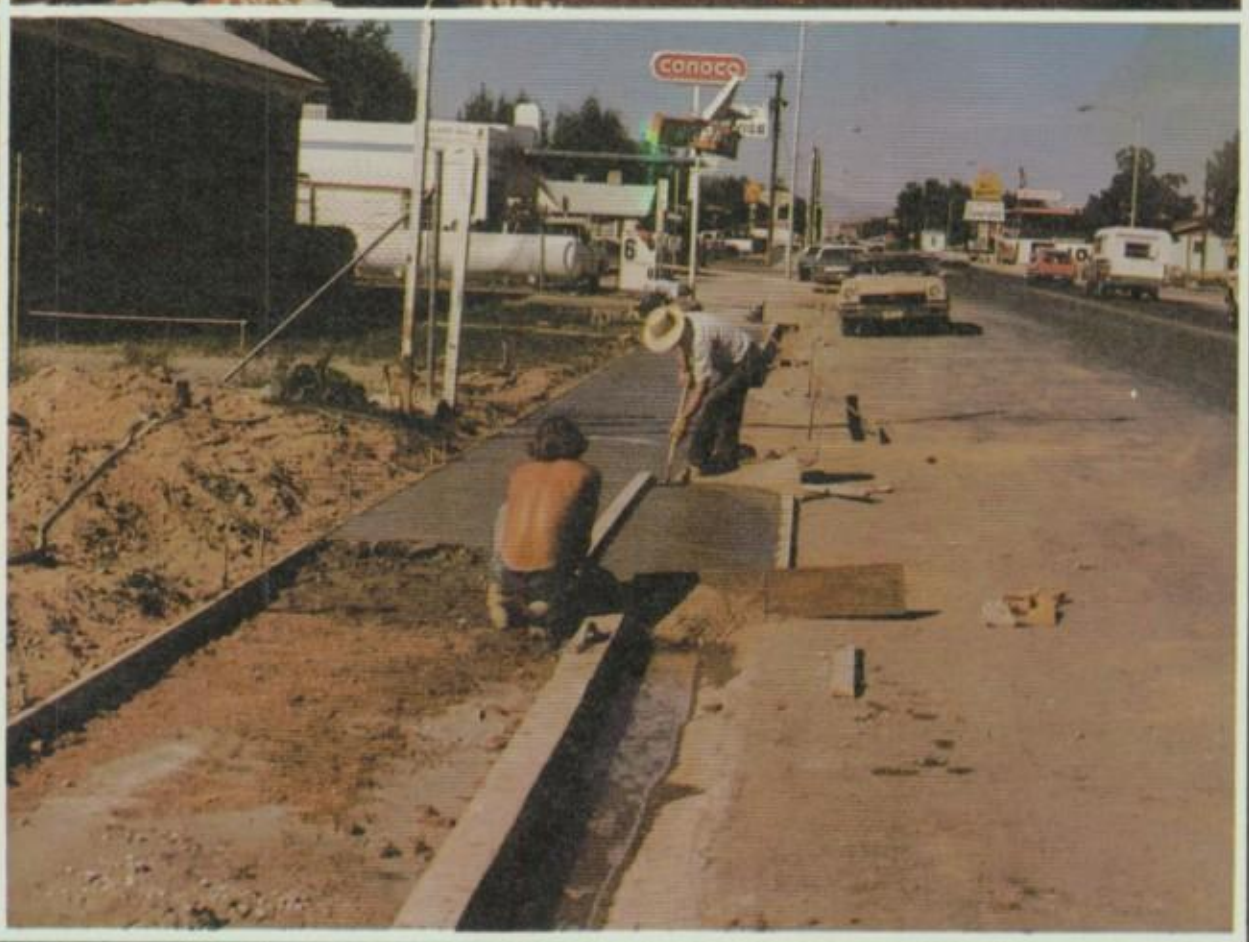
We look back over the formative years. These years are for growing, believing and hoping! These years soar above the rest. Don't be afraid, for we have today.

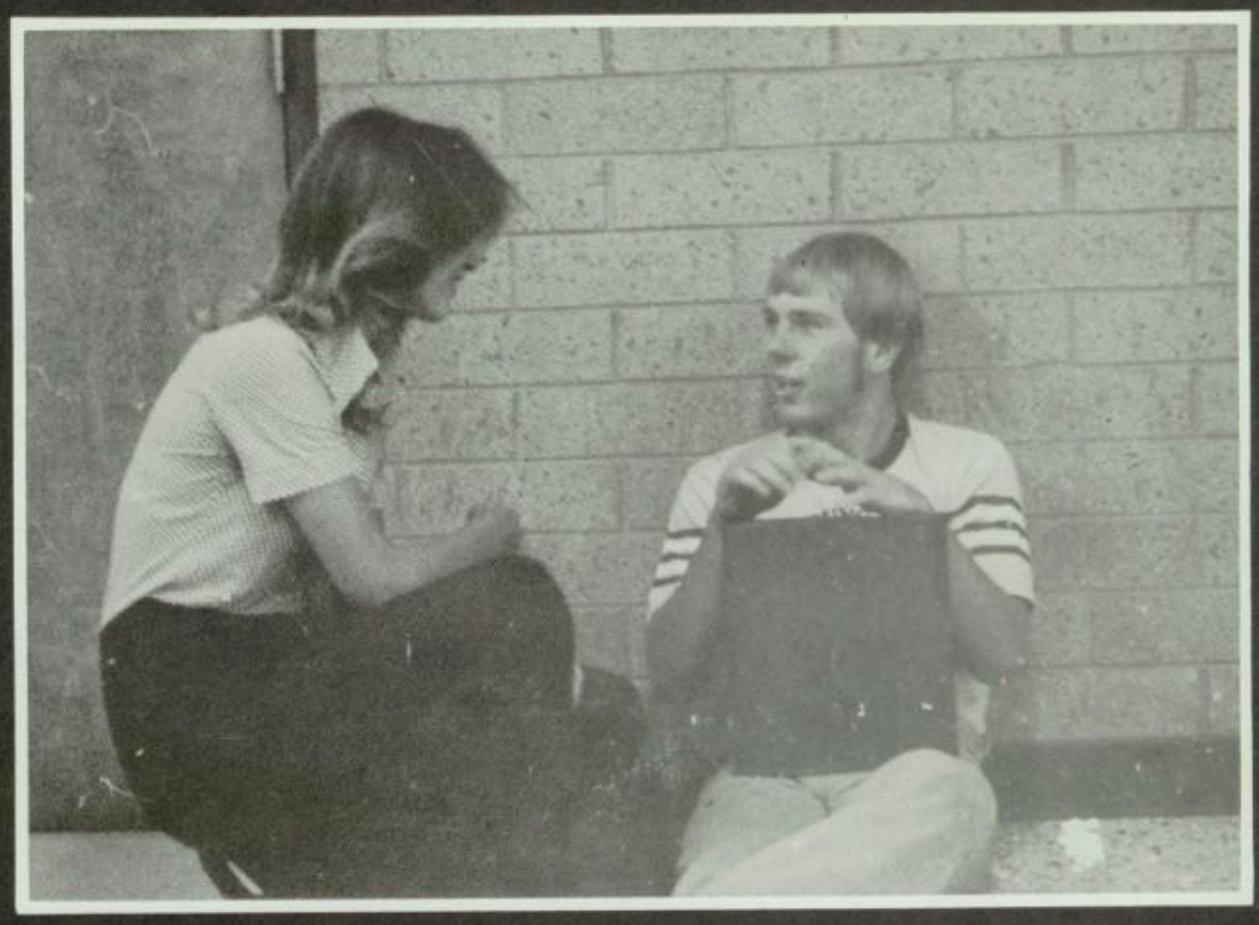
TODAY

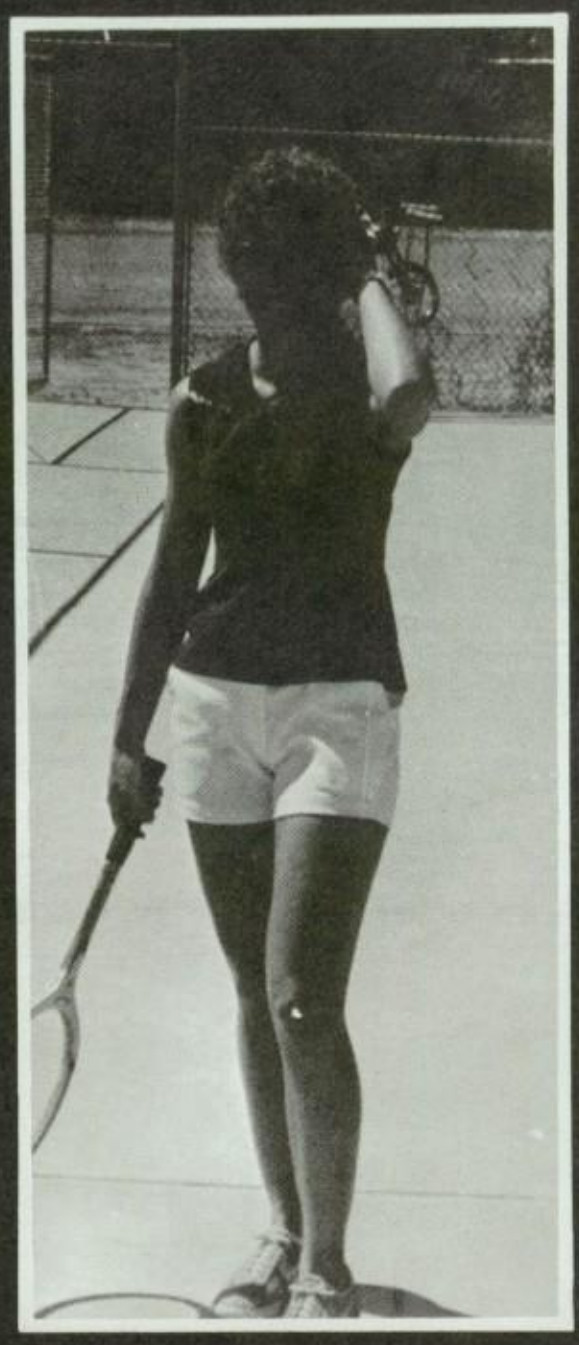


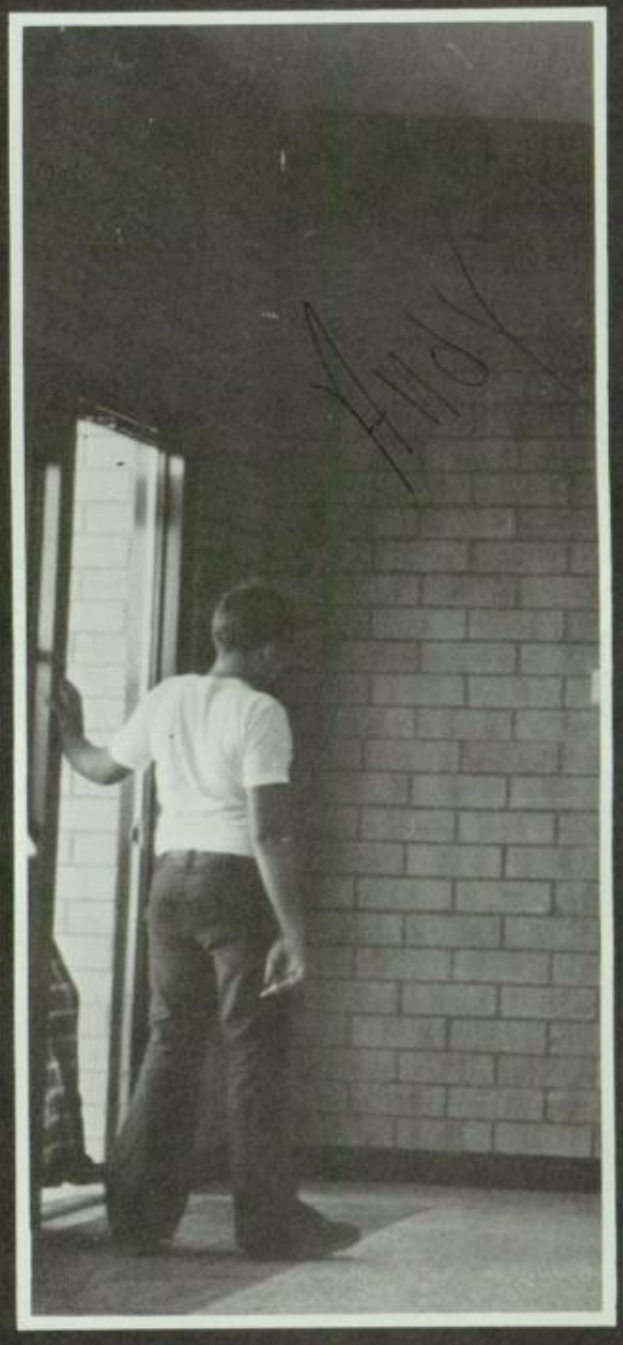
Now at last we are here in this world of modern inventions. Never before have we had so much, but do we really know, or are we just aware of our own small world?





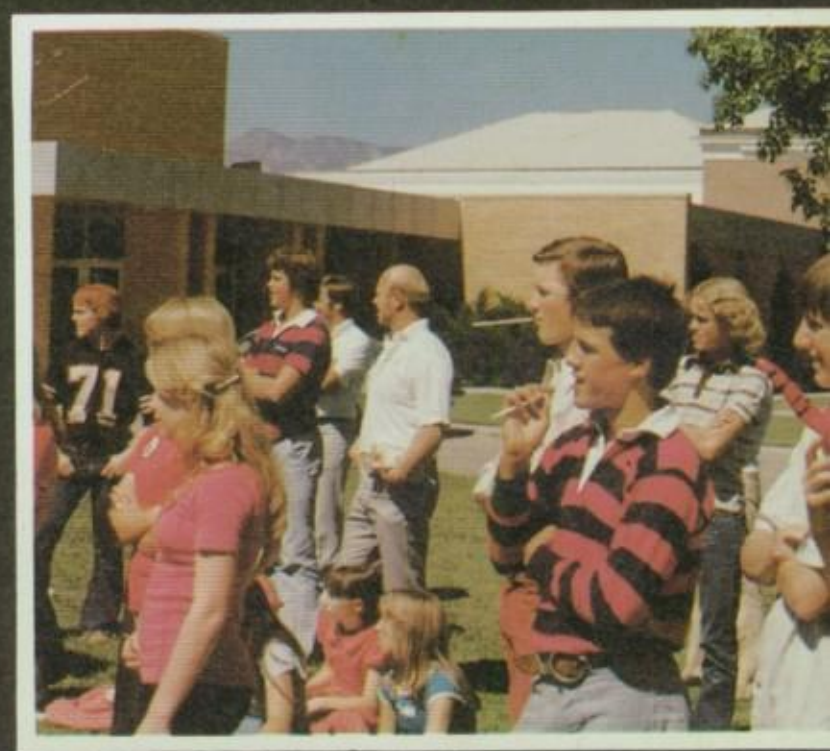


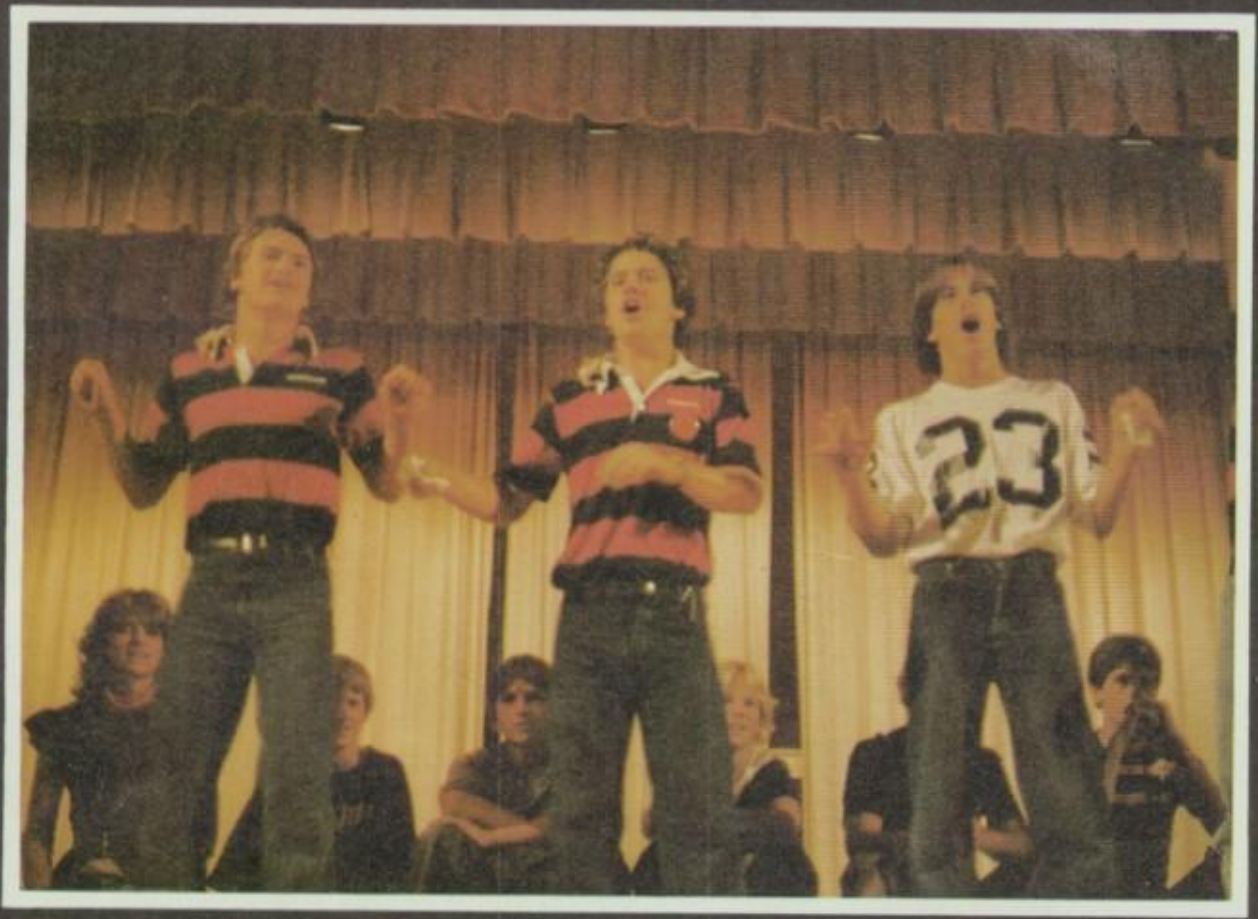




Making friends, finding ourselves — we are now discovering heights above our imagination. We look for a future. Are there possibilities?

Yes, there are possibilities, for we have dreams. We explore. We make fresh choices. Our dreams are worth dreaming, as our world shines around us.





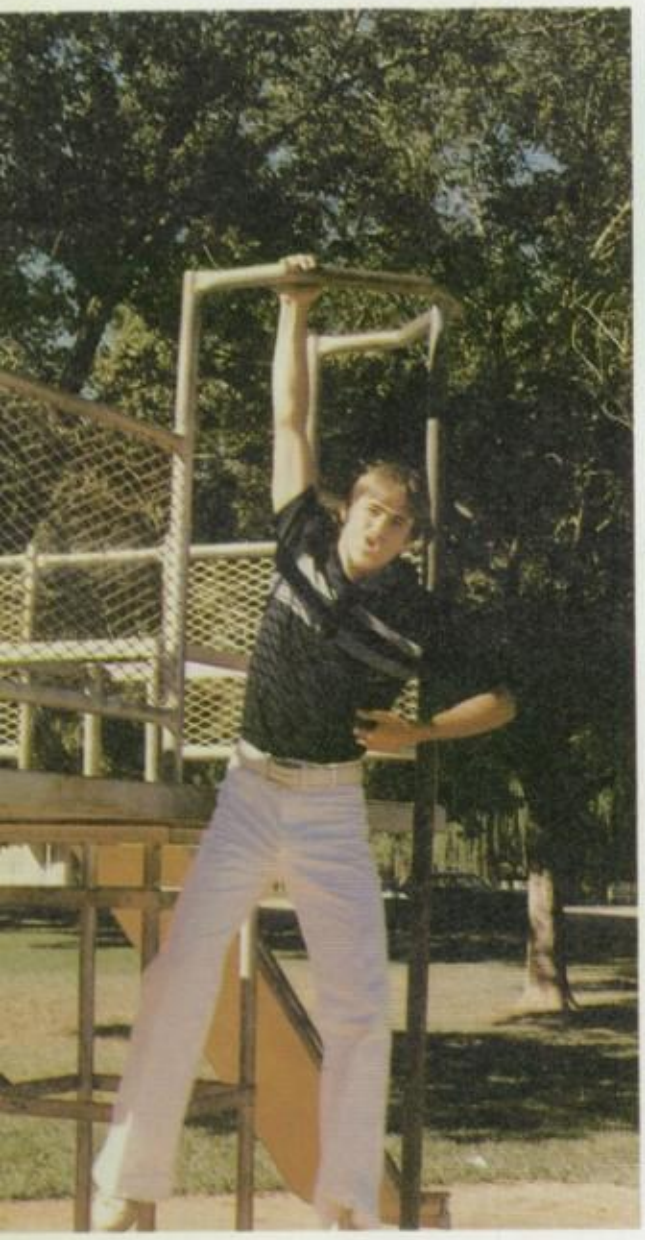
PEOPLE

Student Council

A recipe for a good student council:

Take 1 active president. Throw in 2 vice presidents, 1 for social and 1 for culture. After you have beaten well, take 1 secretary, who is active and enthusiastic, sprinkle her around, along with a touch of happiness found in a treasurer-historian. Next you'll need an extra-curricular officer, and last but not least, toss in a bit of publicity manager. Beat together all year and you will have the H.H.S. student council, a recipe that's sure not to fail.

Top row, left to right: Lisa Pelletier, Pub. Mgr., Jarolyn Ballard, Culture V.P., Taania Bradshaw, Secretary, Jean Heideman, Treas.-Hist. Front row: Dale Johnson, Social V.P., Brad Holt, Pres. Craig Stratton, Extra-curricular.



When it comes to work, Craig Stratton never monkies around.

Lisa Pelletier is always on top of it all.

Dale Johnsdon can always be found smiling.

Taania Bradshaw finds time to display her talent. She is a native of New Zealand.

Jean Heideman really likes how she can express herself through her art-work.

Football? Anytime for Brad Holt. He loves football, among many other things.

SHAPING TOMORROW

Most people after graduation leave their high school days behind them, never to return, but not these people. They return not to listen and be taught, but to instruct and make decisions — Decisions that shape tomorrow!

FIRST CLASS TO GRADUATE '78

Seniors — efficient, enthusiastic, the backbone of the studentbody. They are now in a position to look at the top of the heads of those little Freshmen, call teachers by their first names, and importantly pass opinions on today's topics.

In the bottom of their lockers can be found empty pop cans, candy wrappers, and last week's homework assignments from Algebra II. They monopolize the front of the lunch line. They use common phrases such as, "Understand rubberband," "Don't laugh," and "You know what I mean, Jelly Bean?" When they don't have anything to do, they spend their time in the front hall, commonly known as the student lounge.

As the year passed, the Class of '78 grew closer in friendship; then came the uneasy spring; they glanced ruefully at next year's monarchs; they worried — they graduated.

JRS. ARE DYN O MITE

Snap, Crackle, Pop! The Juniors started the year out with a bang by taking first alternate in the Homecoming Float competition and a victory over the Seniors in the Powder Puff Football game.

New friendships were made, and old ones grew as the class worked together.

Perhaps two of the most important events were getting their class rings and the Jr. Prom.

It has been a year of fun activities and of leadership opportunities that will help them be tomorrow's leaders of HHS.

HAPPINESS IS . . .

. . . Going to school and getting something out of it
. . . Being involved and having pride in your school
. . . Cheering at a football game with all your heart for the school you love
. . . Doing a march without mistakes
. . . Passing a biology test
. . . Watching a sad movie when nobody is around to see you cry
. . . Having someone who understands
. . . Riding your bike in the rain
. . . Knowing you're the kind of person you want to be
. . . Getting up on a cold morning and having a hot shower.

UPRISING SOPHOMORES

As the sophomores realized they were moving up, soon to be HHS leaders, they felt very confident and sure of themselves.

They were actively engaged in school activities, showing their pride by winning many spirit sticks at pep assemblies and the Homecoming Skit for 1977-78.

Yes, these are the spirit of HHS!!!

FAROUT FRESHMEN

Here they are, the Freshmen of 1978 and the Seniors of 1981. Brimming over with spirit and enthusiasm, they've contributed new ideas and good, old-fashioned pride to HHS. The stands were packed with cheering Freshmen, supporting the Tiger team at every game. As the year passed, they experienced the discouragement of an "F" on their first test, and the victory of an "A." They had the unique ability to bounce back with energy and enthusiasm.

The Freshmen class, which has grown in stature as well as height, has been a welcome addition to Hurricane High School!

Teachers Do Care

Our teachers were there to guide and direct us, to help us discover our own ideals of life. They have shown us the way to better ourselves for the future.

They were not only our teachers, but our friends. When we were behind, they gave us courage; and when we were in victory, they helped us rejoice. When we were in need of help, they were there to help us through our difficulties. Teachers really do care!!!

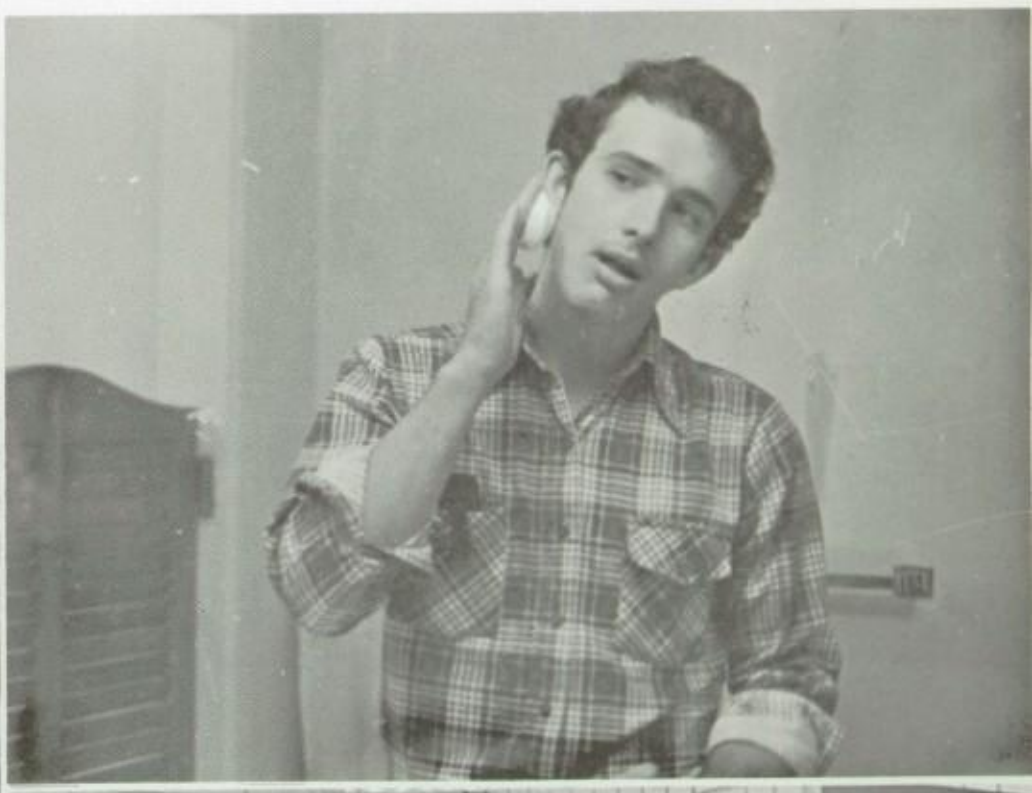
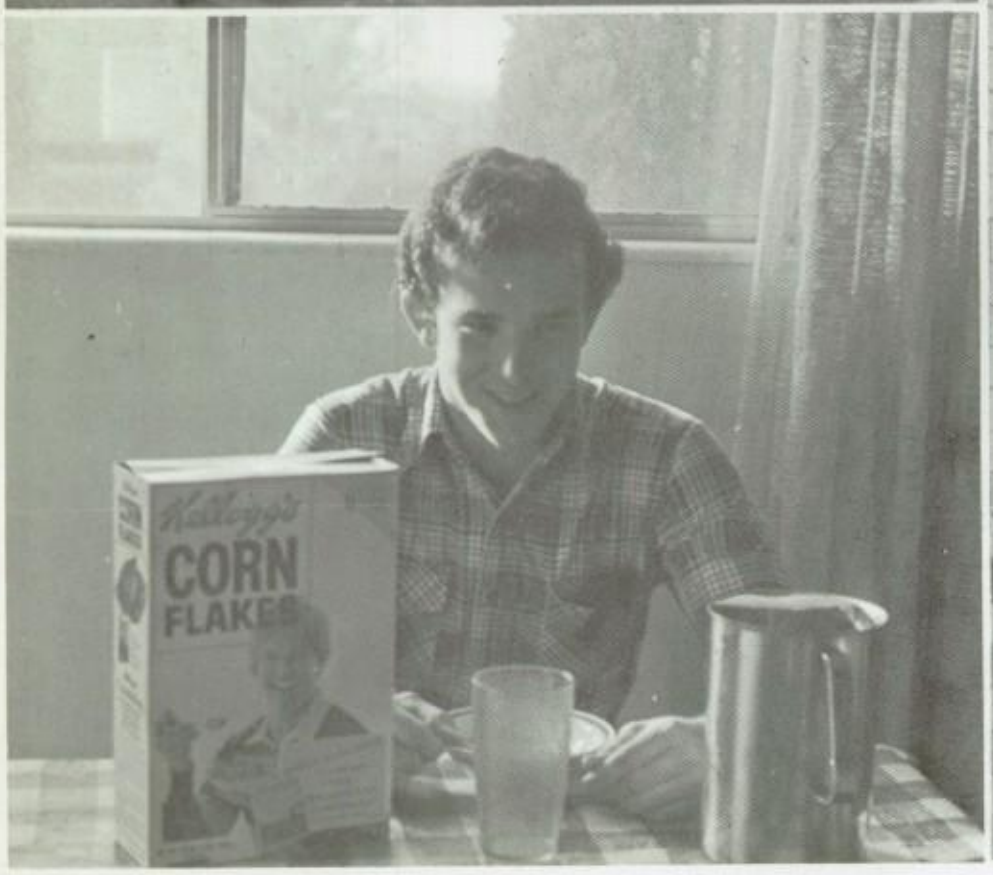
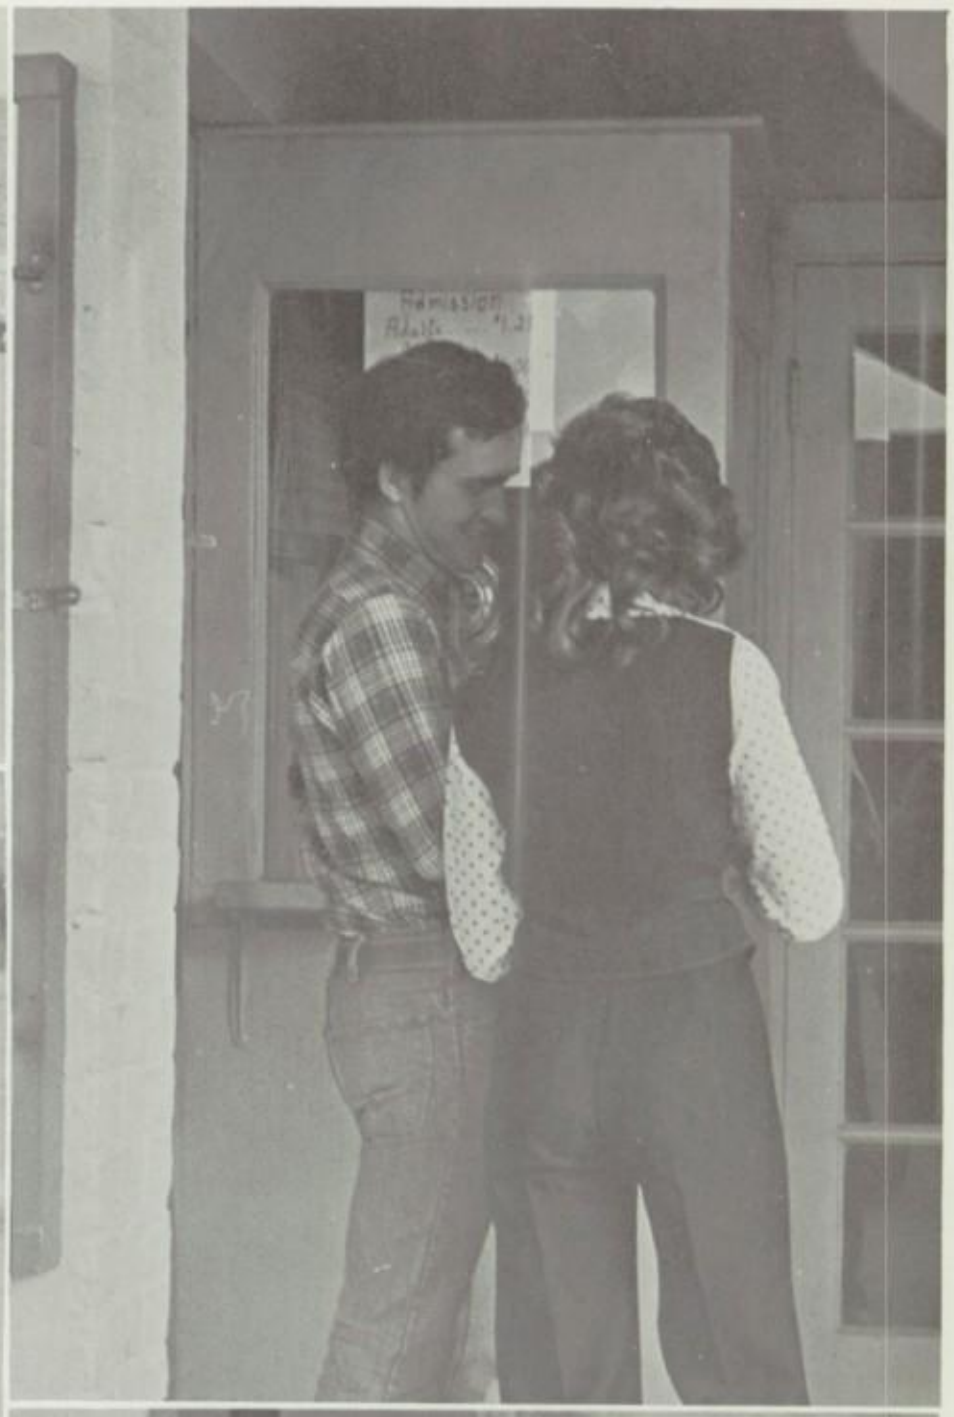
A DAY OF A TIGER





As we wandered through the famous halls of Hurricane High School, our eyes rested upon a fine looking Tiger. We couldn't help but follow him. We decided that we would follow him around the entire day to see what an average day in the life of a Tiger is like. As our alarm clock rang, we crept out of bed and put on our clothes and took our spyglasses and ran out of the door. As we were sneaking around his house, we found him sound asleep. Soon his alarm went off. How tired he was, but finally he pulled himself out of bed and wandered to the bathroom. Ah . . . he's got to be getting out his shaving cream, as we can smell the aroma of his "Old Spice." Breakfast was next. Crunch, crunch, eeeeek! What is it? Oh, he's doing his imitation of Euell Gibbons eating grapenuts. Oh, no, look at the time; he's almost late for school. Whew! HE made it just in time. What a relief! One more tardy and he would have lost 10% of his grade. Finally school is out.



Our Tiger has had a long hard day, but . . . do you think his day is over? No! His day has just begun! We followed him across the practice field and onto the track. What a "HUNK." Now he's headed towards the shower room. Waiting outside, we next saw our Tiger jump in his old jalopy and rattle toward home. My, he is in a hurry. He must have a date. We stopped at the grapevine to find out that he has a date with Honna Kay Jenkins, the president of the Snorkle Club. Where'll he take her? Oh, he's going to favor her with a hot date; they're going to Eugene Theater! Wow, they had a fantastic night. Finally he walks Honna Kay to the door and gives her a lovely kiss!

Smile ! YOU'RE On Candid Camera

You never know when someone is going to come up to you and say . . . "SMILE YOU'RE ON CANDID CAMERA!" Naturally people are camera shy, but when told there was no film in the camera the real "me" came out!

Say! There's a bunch who look like they had their Wheaties this morning! It's the Hurricane Pep Club. This brand new club adds lots of spirit to HHS. It was rough getting started, but they are off with flying colors and are really out of sight! The Pep Club members attend every home game and are always cheering our Tiger team on to victory. As Colleen Hacker put it, "This club is vibrating spirit to the whole school!"

SENIOR CHORUS SINGS ALONG

Sr. Chorus — singing is their thing. They sang at the Christmas and Spring concerts, participated at Region, and were busy the year around learning to improve their singing abilities.

Throughout the year they strived diligently to bring pleasure to those who heard their performances, as well as satisfaction to themselves.

Joanne Baiardi trapped among the musical chairs.

Going up is easier than coming down.

Ricky Wright, Gayle Pace, Harley Monnett work hard to perfect their music.

Joseph Spencer plays the guitar in stage band.

STAGE BAND

"Starting with a center of experienced musicians, we have added several ninth graders who are inexperienced but very willing." said Mr. Johnson. These students have produced some "tremendous" sounds.

Throughout the year the Stage Band has performed at assemblies, regional competition and the annual Christmas Concert.

Yes, our Stage Band has truly represented HHS well!!!

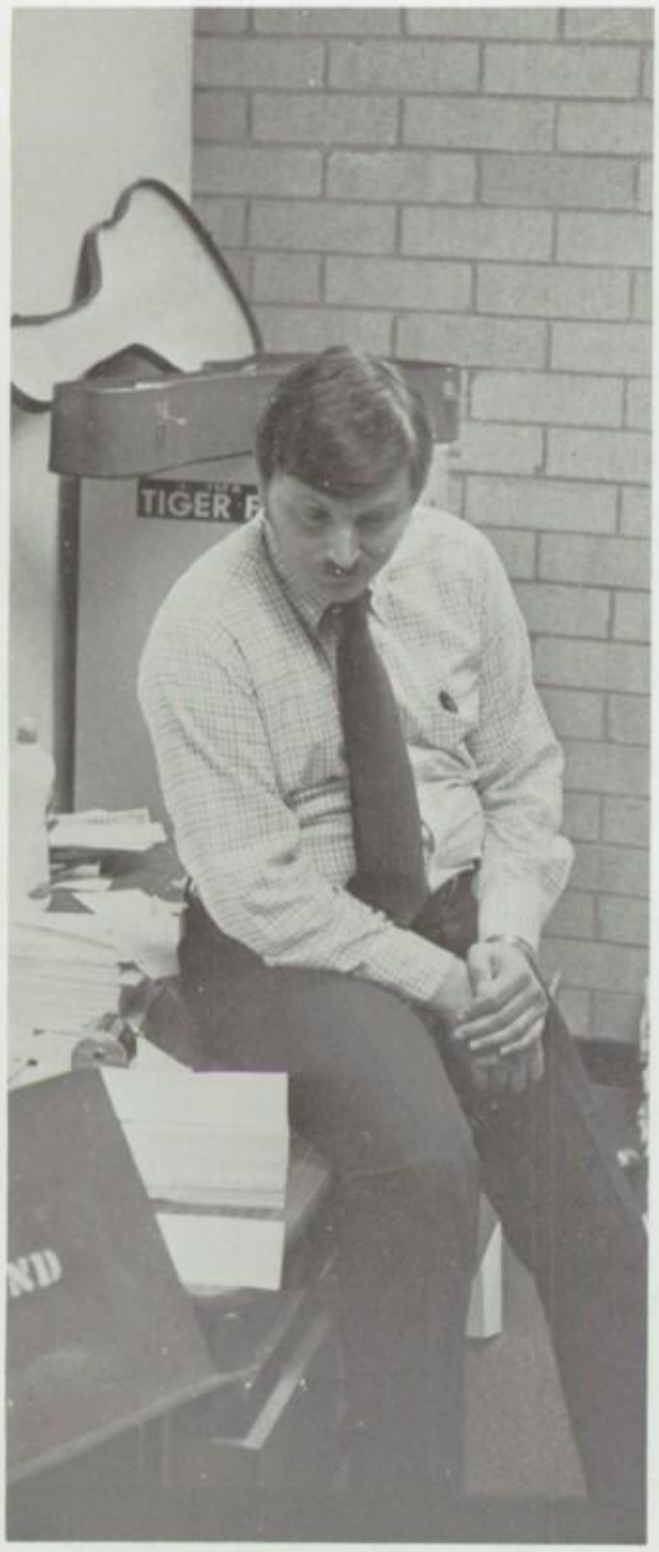
COLOR GUARD

The Color Guard, with sparkling smiles and energetic step, carried the Old Glory with much pride. They not only carried the flag at the games but also marched with the band. These girls worked hard to make Color Guard an important part of parades, games, and special events at school and at various community activites.

Back row, left to right: Marvene Darrington, Coleen Warrick, Myrna Christensen, Connie Stratton. Front row: Marilyn Wright, Jill Hinton.



Mr. Larry Johnson, Acappella director.

"Close your eyes girls!"says Ricky, Dave, and Paul.

Sheri Spendlove and Kathy Naegle practice on their own.

A CAPPELLA

We are trying to give our choir students many meaningful music experiences," said Mr. Larry Johnson. "We offer them the challenge of difficult ranges in music and the opportunity to perform for many audiences which includes regional competition, a concert at Christmas and in the spring, the annual spring tour."

"Throughout the year a conscious effort is made to continually raise each individual's level of musicianship."

"On the whole, the students in the Acappella Choir are among the best musicians in this school."

Back row: Lisa Hinton, Colleen Hacker, Kent Hinchcliff, Dave Stout, Jeff Hinton, Jarolyn Ballard, Kelli Sue Dutton. FFA

FFA or Future Farmers of America has helped the school in many ways. They have helped beautify our school by planting greenery. They went to State judging competition to represent HHS. They sponsored the Harvest Ball, which turned out to be a fun time for all. The Harvest Ball Sweetheart was Sharlee Hall, with Tonya Wood and Becky Hall as her Attendants.

Brad Reeve works hard at everything he does.

FHA is a club for anyone who wants his or her home a more pleasant place. Everyone looked forward to the FHA convention held at Salt Lake where they gathered with other schools to compare ideals.

Miss Pope, their advisor, was a very busy lady always wearing a smile; she put her heart into the club's activities. FHA is one of the most active clubs of HHS.

Spirit of Cheerleading

After coming home with the top awards at an NCA Cheer Camp this summer, our Varsity Cheerleader raised the spirit of our school higher than ever before and cheered the Tigers on to many victories! Just ask anyone of them, and they'll tell you this year was the best!!!

Ann Beardall — Happy, full of enthusiasm and always ready to go the extra mile. Ann's peppy attitude and tremendous leadership ability has been a great asset to the squad as Head Cheerleader.

Shauna Ashton — Her captivating smile and genuine friendliness puts her in a class by herself.

Tanya Ballard — A personality that radiates sparkle and spirit. She is energetic, fun, and liked by everyone.

Lori Kroff — Her happy disposition and cheerful smile make her everyone's friend.

Paula Last — Her cheerfulness is contagious, and her talent and personality can't be duplicated anywhere.

Top: Paula Last. Second row: Lori Kroff, Ann Beardall, Tanya Ballard. Bottom: Shauna Ashton.

Ann Heideman — She is only 4 ft. 11 in. but full of spirit and pep.

Suzy Kroff — She is a super good cheerleader and raises lots of school pride.

Top: Ann Heideman, Suzy Kroff. Bottom: Kelli Sue Dutton, Becky Last, Cassie Hall.

JV'S DO IT!

Cassie Hall — She is always on the go, very coordinated, with lots of spirit.

Kelly Sue Dutton — She is a really cute cheerleader with lots of spirit.

Becky Last — She is bubbling with personality and excitement.

Tigerettes March On

5-6-7-8 When you heard this count, you knew Tigerettes had to be somewhere around. You can find them in the streets, practicing a parade march, or in the gym dancing to a fast beat at a basketball game, maybe even at a football game doing a military march with the pep band. Tigerettes have really added spirit to HHS.

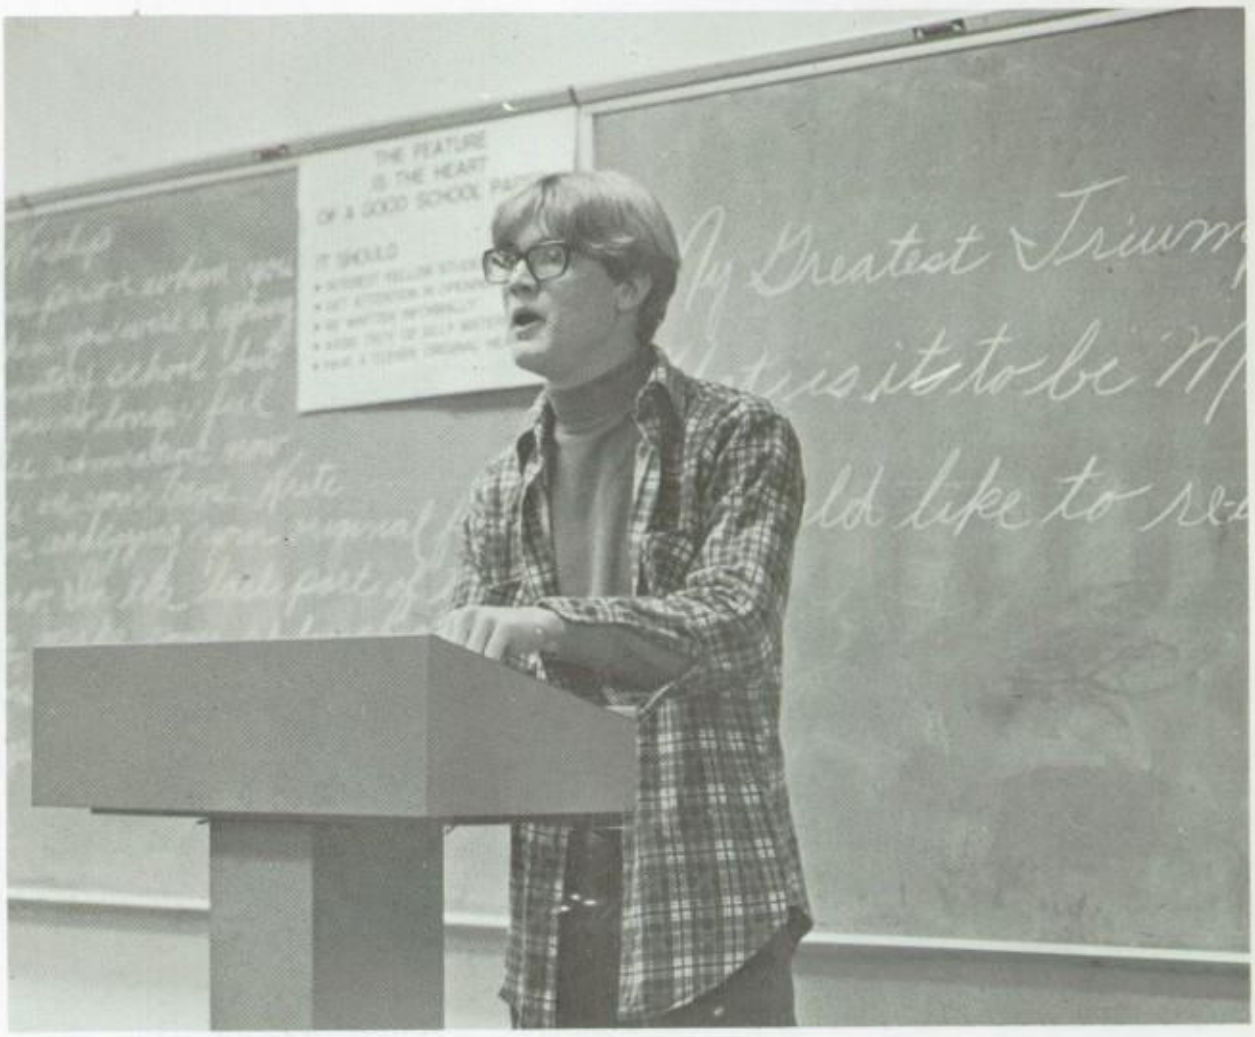
FORENSIC: THINK ON YOUR FEET

In a nutshell, Forensic is the art of public speaking in many forms, including debate, impromptu speaking, extemporaneous speaking, oration and legislative forum.

"The ability to 'think on your feet' is stressed and hopefully learned," stated Mr. William Brady, advisor. "Combined use of voice, eye to eye contact, bodily gestures, and the development of self-confidence are qualities which make up one of the most useful fields in school," he went on to say.

Throughout the year they attended several meets with other school and traveled to Model U.N., which was held in Salt Lake City. Culminating their activities, they attended a region meet at Snow College and the State Finals at BYU.



Chip Higgins — Thinking on his feet?

Thespians is a club that is enjoyed and sought after by many year after year. The Thespians have many old traditions that were carried on this year; such as: the mud football game, the kidnap breakfast, the famous Thespian initiation, and, of course, their terrifying spook movie.

Each year Thespians add new traditions of their own; such as: Putting on a program at Christmas time, going to a production of "Shenandoah."

Creativity and self expression, are all a part of Thespians. They seem to mix fun and learning and as a result reap a delightful club.

German Club

Tony Houston and Mary Lou Scholzen make great saleswomen for the German Club.

"Sprechen Sie Deutsch" was a common phrase heard in the halls of HHS. Its origin was Room #6 in the South Hall, where Mr. Wood, their advisor, resides during school days. Learning a foreign language and combining efforts brought a touch of Germany to HHS.

They had to say "Aufweiderschen" to their Senior members, but those remaining look forward to another eventful year in the German Club.

HURRICANA

Everyone looked forward to the bi-weekly issue of the "Hurricana." When at last the paper was out, everyone made a mad dash for the nearest stack of papers. Within a few minutes the halls were full of students, absorbed in the latest news.

The Journalism staff could relax and Mr. Brady heaved a sigh of relief, the paper was out!

Few people understand the time and effort put into writing the many articles. Our paper staff is really super and deserves a lot of credit.

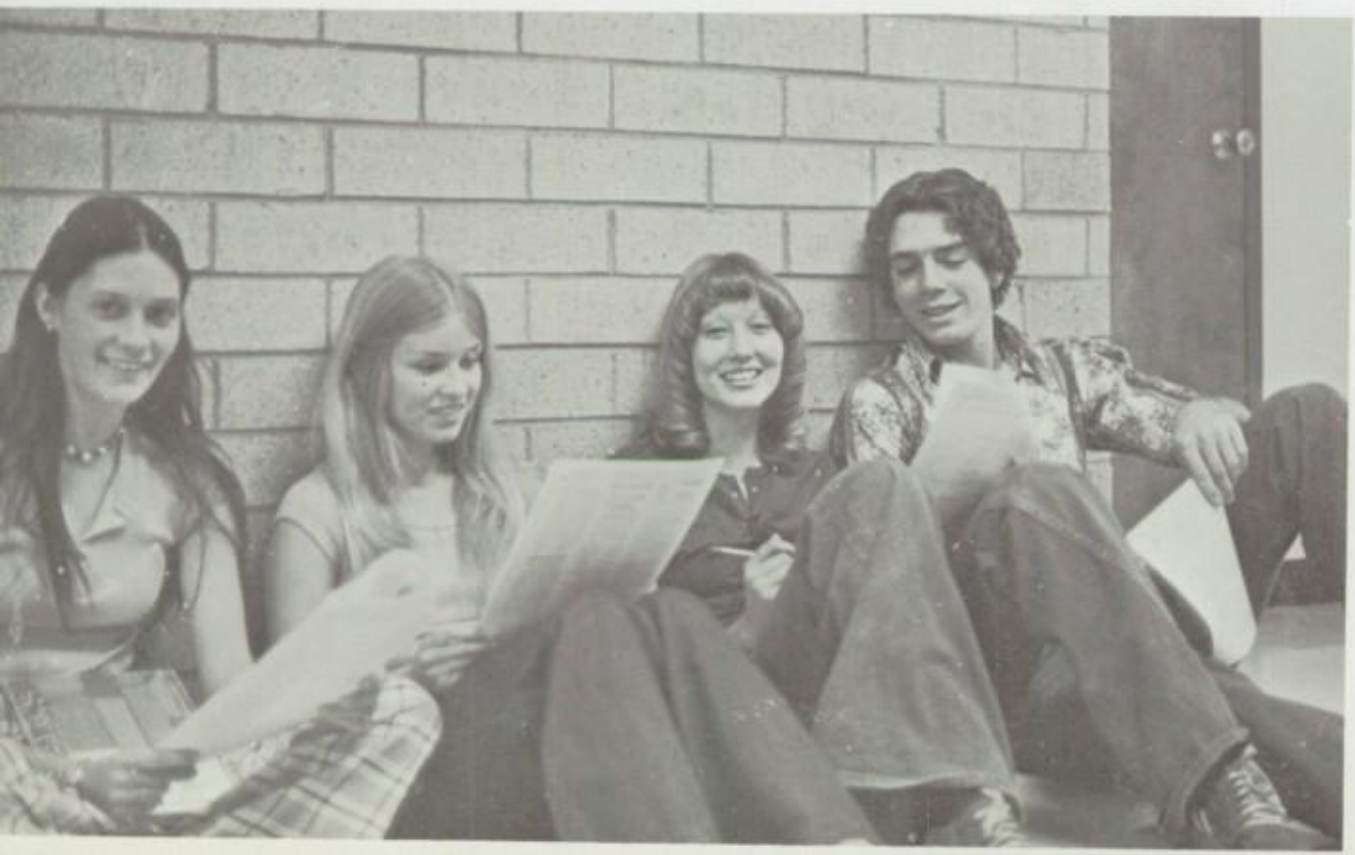

Photo 2: Paula Last, editor, distributes the paper to Natalie Kunz, Cynthia Brown, Shillene Demille, and Mark Heber.

RODEO

Ya! Ho! The Rodeo Club is off and running. The Rodeo Club, wearing bright colored outfits, rode in the Homecoming Parade. They have also represented HHS at St. George parades.

Taking pride in their riding, roping barrels, broncobusting, and other skills, the Rodeo Club represented HHS as a competitive club at various rodeos throughout the year.

NIKE CLUB

Making Christmas decorations was part of a Nike Club project.

The Nike Club, sponsored by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club, is all for love and service to others.

The Nike Club is an organization which helps others and has fun doing it. They have helped Birks Rest Home by entertaining them with songs and programs. During Christmas Vacation, they decorated the rest home for the Holiday Season. This club was created to do nice things for people in the community and at school.

SKI CLUB

This year H.H.S. had a new addition to our school, the Ski Club. Jeff Ferber, president and founder, organized this club. Its membership consisted of beginners and a few experienced skiers. Their main hangout was Brianhead. Their advisor and chaperone was Mrs. Holden, commonly known as "short and sassy." She enjoys skiing very much. David Yates is vice pres.; Kelly Parker, sec; and Jean Heideman, treasurer.

NO. 1 BAND

Fans of Barry Manilow, Walter Murphy Band, and Betthoven banded together this year to compose one of the most exciting organizations of this school: The H.H.S. Tiger Marching Band. Each member experienced many memorable activities, such as playing at the dedication of the new high school, marching at many parades, and participating at the Davis Cup Marching Festival held in Salt Lake City, where they placed third, bringing home a beautiful trophy.

The enthusiasm at our games has been largely the result of the spirited cooperation of the Pep Band, a breakaway of our Marching Band.

The members, with their dashing uniforms and their musicianship, are to be commended for their fine contributions.

BLAZING GUNS AT ROARING GULCH

H.H.S. presented "Curses, Foiled Again," which was a salute to the Vaudeville shows, November 10-12 of 1977. This production combined two melodramas, linking them together with olios and slides. The setting for the first melodrama was an old western town called "Roaring Gulch." The characters consisted of various personalities. The plot centered around an English detective and a dangerous outlaw who were actually identical twin brothers. All this evolved around a bank robbery and a mysterious will. Once again the stage was set and so were actors and the performance of "Blazing Guns at Roaring Gulch" was presented.

ALIAS SMEDLEY

"Help! Help! Is there no one to protect us from this fiend?" shreaks Goldie, the sweetest thing this side of Virginia City. "Alias Smedly Pewtree" has begun. The fun melodrama added lots of spice to the Vaudeville Shows. Mrs. Holden, drama teacher, is new at Hurricane High but has certainly proved to be a great asset. She had lots of fun with our school play, as did the cast members. Our fall play was a cornball!

At Hurricane High we saw that people had a great interest in seeing our Tiger be victorious. As they yell themselves hoarse, students and townspeople alike prodded the Tigers on to qualifying for State.

The important thing was that even in defeat, there was a certain amount of victory for the team and its supportors because of the excellent sportsmanship displayed.

The Tigers practiced many long, hard hours to develop split-second accuracy and perfection of muscle coordination, but it was worth it to know that they did their best in all performances.

MOVE ON

"The J.V.'s are very entertaining; they are relaxed before games, but when it comes time, they do it," said Coach Dennis Drake. What our team lacks in height they make up for in speed. A number of games they were way down and fought back to a victory.

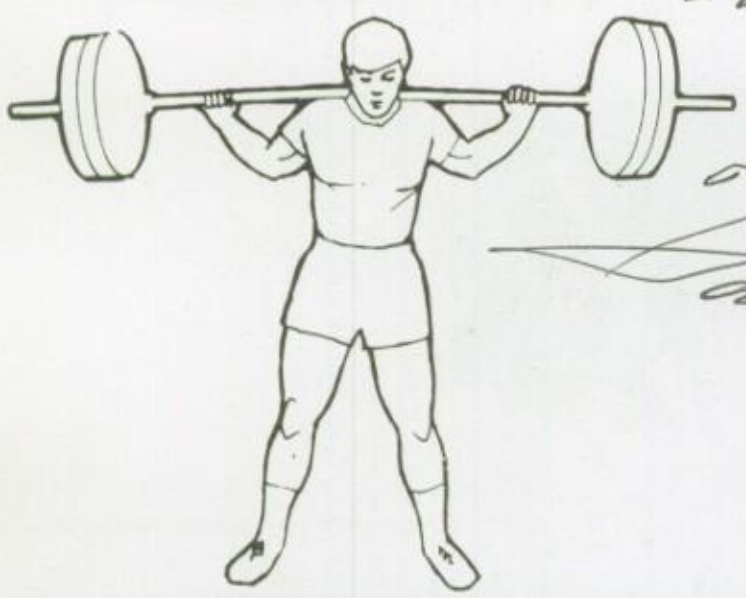
The Tiger Team has had a successful year, thanks to the training rules; keeping up their grades, keeping away from girls, working hard, hustling and being home by 10:00 p.m. "The team has been great to work with. They only have to apply themselves to win," replied Coach Dennis Drake, Asst. Coach. "When they are really hustling, they are super ball players; but when they get lazy and don't pay attention, they aren't so great," said Coach Lynn Christensen, Head Coach. The basketball players visions of winning and their good attitudes gave tons of success to the hard-working, dedicated Tigers.

(Write your own)

WRESTLING



It took concentration and determination to go out on the mat to win. One slip or mistake and it was all over. Muscle flexibility and willpower enabled wrestlers to put forth their best.

The Tiger wrestlers did H.H.S. proud at the Cedar and Piute tournaments, placing fifth at Cedar and third at Piute. Even though wrestling is an individual sport, it took a hard-working squad to become #1 in the minds of H.H.S. students.

The girls' athletic team finished an impressive year after competing in baseball, basketball, and track. Under the coaching leadership of Miss Christine McArthur, the team practiced early in the mornings and late in the afternoons, perfecting the many techinques which are necessary to become champs.

The team, consisting of underclasswomen, leave Coach McArthur plenty to work with next year. Visions of new members joining the team and their super attitude promises future success to this hard-working and dedicated group of girls.

Homecoming theme, "Looks Like We Made It," was chosen by the Executive Council, who planned the activities for a very successful Homecoming Week.

The Homecoming Royalty girls were chosen Monday to reign over the week's activities.

On Wednesday, the Seniors and Juniors, dressed in their uniforms and helmets, met on the football field for the annual Powder Puff game.

Early Friday morning, the Tigerettes served breakfast to the football team. Later that day came the Homecoming Skits Assembly, the parade, and the Pep Rally. That evening at the football game the mighty Hurricane Tigers defeated the North Sanpete Hawks.

The night ended with the Homecoming Dance, which was one of the biggest dances of the year.

Yearbook Week

MONDAY — Mis — Match Day!

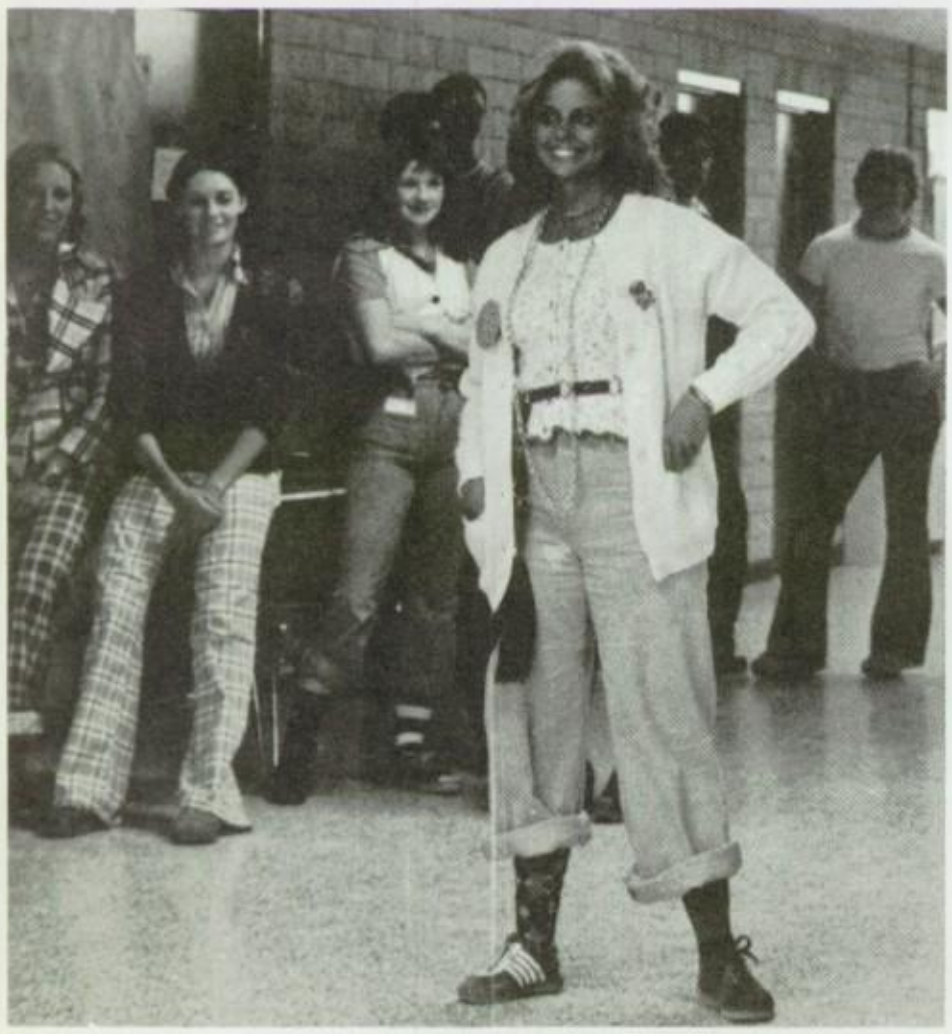
TUESDAY — Make a spectacle of yourself Day

WEDNESDAY — Camera Day

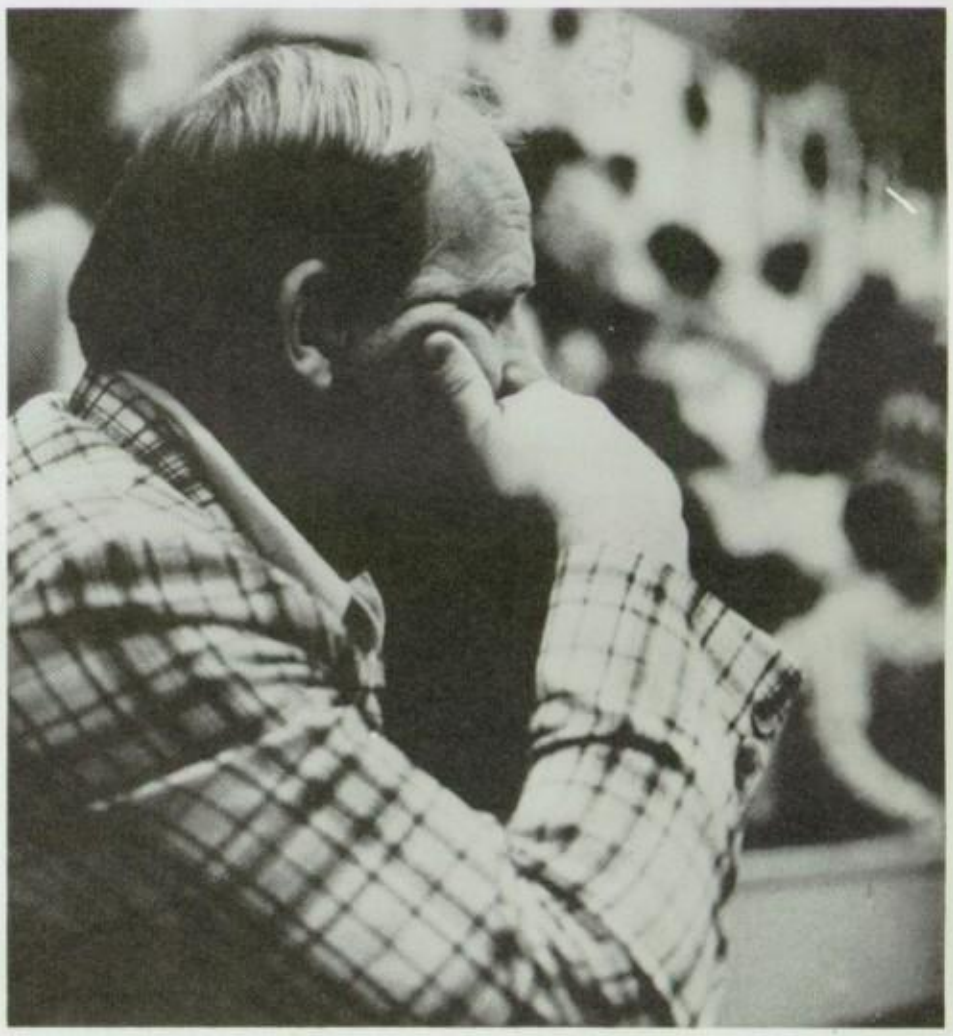
THURSDAY — Say Cheese and get a KISS Day!

FRIDAY — Deadline Day, We sent it off!

Wow! Why didn't you tell me it was Yearbook Week!!!



YOU can sure tell that it's mix and mismatch day, right Shauna???!!!



Oh, no — It's Yearbook Week.

Thespian Week

I've heard of mud baths before, but this is ridiculous!

Making a masterpiece out of some new member of Thespian.

Don't you ever have a bath, Kent?

The Thespians continued their tradition of having one of the greatest and most exciting weeks of the year. They always have a great variety of activities including a merciless initiation and a gushy mud football game. The Thespians also had formal installation and they always looked forward to slave luncheon. Thespian Week was a week to be remembered by all the school as well as the Thespians.

POWDERPUFF

It all started one night with a little nip in the air,
People were coming from everywhere.
"It's the Powder Puff Game," said one sweet little soul.
"Come on then; let's giddy up and go."
By half-time the score was 6-0, the Juniors were on their winning hero.
Seniors said, "How can this be?"
Then suddenly the Juniors got kicked in the knee.
Referees were blowing whistles for off sides;
Both teams huddled together and started to cry.
There were bruises, broken fingernails, and a broken ankle;
There were no broken heads or arms, and for that we were thankful.
Both teams played good, and the Cheerleaders were great!
And the night of that day will go down in date.
The Juniors said without any fright
That they would win that "VICTORY" night.
All in all the game was fun,
Even though the Juniors won!

"GET 'EM"

"Get 'Em!" This was a familiar cry heard echoing throughout the streets of Hurricane from 6 am — 10 pm during the famous Sadie Hawkins Week. Many young men found themselves in the steel grip of very determined young women. When the dance finally rolled around, those young men weren't too heartbroken that they had been caught. The prestigious "Little Abner" and "Daisy Mae" titles were awarded to Jeff Alder and Shauna Ashton. It was the rip-em-up shang-bang event of the school year.

The day started at 10:00 a.m. participating in a physical fitness routine and luncheon given by the P.T.A. were the mornings activities. In the afternoon each girl had a personal interview with judges. That night the girls performed their talent numbers. Excitement and suspense filled the air as Paula Last was crowned Jr. Miss from Hurricane; Joyce Latmer was crowned Jr. Miss from St. George; Marci Hafen as first attendant, Lori Kroff as second attendant, and Margaret Beecher as Jr. Miss Spirit.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

We look back and remember the happy times, feeling rewarded for our hard work. Other moments we feel alone, apart from the crowd. Yes, we did begin; our life is one constant beginning. And there is always an end to every beginning. This was our year, formed by each individual. These were our best days. Do you remember?
